We acknowledge that we are surprised at the nomination of one or two of these gentlemen. It was scarecly to be expected that soldierly qualities would outweigh legal ability in a choice of men for the highest Judicial position in the State. Notwithstandthis, however, the Supreme Bench will be an able and incorruptible one, and one in which the people can place their liberties and rights with safety. We are especially rejoiced to find our distinguished citizen, Hon. A. O. P. Nicholson, nominated by a very large vote. We congratulate the State. a position of the highest trust. It is just the place for a man of his wisdom, learning, honesty and habits of mind, possessing as he does an innate sense of justice, mercy, and love of his fellow-men.

The European War Cloud. A few days ago war between two of the greatest powers of Europe seemed imminent, if not inevitable but the calm and dignified answer of the Prussian Government to the mercurial French has created the hope of Judge Nicholson and Gen . Prim offered the throne of Spain to Prince Hohenzollern, a German Prince, the King of Prusisa's son. The Prince announced his willingness to accept the gift, and France immediately flew into a passion, and after declaring that his accession to the throne of Spain would be just cause for war with Prussia, commenced to make immense preparations for immediate conflicte Austria, by reason of her defeat at Sodown, no doubt sympathizes with amendment.
